25X1A 1. A report from [REDACTED] stated that Major Oscar Osorio refused to attend a meeting with a group of capitalists which was scheduled to take place on 6 January [REDACTED]. The men behind the movement were Jacinto Pohl, Roberto Canessa and Major Jose Alberto Funes. Their purpose was to present their view to Osorio that a Constituent Assembly should be convoked as soon as possible.

2. Osorio became convinced upon making inquiries that the first thing he would have to face at such a meeting would be a demand to free Col. Osmin Aguirre, who has been in jail since the recent coup d'etat. Osorio did not wish to cope with the question and therefore decided not to attend. Other persons who were to have attended the meeting likewise became convinced that the supporters of Aguirre were preparing a maneuver, and as a result the meeting was postponed.
